Faith for the Future: The Next Chapter

future.prcoc.org

You don't want to miss worship in two weeks!

On February 19, we will hand out packets crammed full of information about the Faith for the Future: The Next Chapter initiative. That day will also start our 36-day Prayer Journey as we each ask God how He would have us sacrifice today to make room for those He brings us in the future.

Psalm 102:18 says, "Let this be written for the generation to come, that people yet to be created may praise the LORD."

Investing in the future of our church and our community is what The Next Chapter is all about – join us on the journey!
